Upon being duly notified, Horse Owner Javier Marquez was represented by his Attorney, Antonio Chavez before the Lone Star Park Board of Stewards On 10/12/12 in the matter of misdemeanor convictions that could affect his eligibility for a Texas Racing Commission occupational license. Mr. Chavez presented documents detailing early release from probation and letters of recommendation as evidence of the rehabilitation of his client.

After considering the evidence presented in this case, the Board of Stewards hereby places Javier Marquez's TxRC occupational license in conditional status with the understanding that any further criminal convictions could result in the denial of his Texas Racing Commission owners license.
