Racing Official, Jorge Lujan, having been duly noticed, failed to appear at a formal hearing before the Retama Park Board of Stewards at 9:00 A.M. on 08/03/2010. A hearing was held on 08/03/2010, in absentia, and evidence was presented identifying Mr. Lujan as having been responsible for entering at least 319 fraudulent workouts on horses in Equibase's published official workout database, including fraudulent workouts for four horses entered in races at Remington Park in Oklahoma. Mr. Lujan also received prohibited compensation for such favors, which is considered a bribe. As a result of this hearing, Mr. Jorge Lujan's Texas Racing Commission occupational license has been suspended for one (1) year, commencing on 08/03/2010 through 08/02/2011, and is hereby fined five thousand ($5000.00) dollars.

During the term of this suspension, Mr. Jorge Lujan, is denied access to all facilities under the jurisdiction of the Texas Racing Commission.
